Berlin Says RAF Attacks

WEIZMANN EXPECTS WHITE PAPER'S END

War Heightening Need to Open Palestine Fully to Jews, He Tells Zionists in London

By Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, Jan. 30—Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, told a Zionist Federation conference here today he had a "hunch" that the British White Paper of May 1, 1930, concerning Palestine would not survive the war.

The White Paper, Dr. Weizmann declared, had proved disastrous for the Jews because it had reduced their immigration to Palestine to ridiculously small dimensions and had deprived many thousands of the sanctuary they so badly needed. So far as the Arabs were concerned, he added, the White Paper had not achieved its purpose of appeasing them.

Dr. Weizmann remarked that the exiled Mufti of Jerusalem, Hej Amin el Husseini, was still an intimate collaborator of Hitler and that the Mufti's friends in Palestine had not swerved from their abuse of the Jews.

Emphasizing that Axis-held Europe had been indoctrinated and poisoned by anti-Semitic teachings, Dr. Weizmann said it would be naive to think that, as soon as the war was over, the Jews would be re-established in their former positions and that there would be no need for great emigrations. He estimated there would be about 2,000,000 Jews who could not be integrated in European countries and said Palestine would have to be opened and developed for them without delay.

Given certain conditions, he said, these Jews could go to Palestine at a rate of about 100,000 yearly, but political and economic requirements for them must be met.

The conference reaffirmed a resolution adopted by the executive council of the Zionist Federation in 1938 stating that, in the belief that British and Jewish ideals and interests marched together in Palestine, the federation would welcome a solution that would ultimately give the Jewish State a place within the framework of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

The conference appealed to the United Nations to hasten the rescue of Jews in Nazi-occupied Europe and demanded that Palestine be opened freely so that homeless people might go to their natural homeland and rebuild their lives in freedom.

NEW GROUP SET UP TO PROTECT JEWS

Justice Murphy, Willkie and Governors Are on Committee to Fight Nazi Persecutors

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30—Justice Frank Murphy of the United States Supreme Court announced tonight the formation of the National Committee against Nazi Persecution and Extermination of the Jews of which he will serve as chairman.

Other officers and members of the committee are Wendell Willkie, vice chairman; Norman M. Littell, asistant Attorney General, secretary; Vice President Wallace, Governor Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Governor Goodland of Wisconsin, Governor Maw of Utah, former Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania; the Right Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church; the Most Rev. Bernard J. Sheil, auxiliary bishop of Chicago; the Rev. Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin, president of Union Theological Seminary, and Eric A. Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Purpose of the Committee

Justice Murphy said that the committee was formed for the following purposes:

1. To rally the full force of the public conscience in America against the persecution and extermination of Jewish men, women and children in Nazi-occupied Europe, and in support of sustained and vigorous action by our government and the United Nations to rescue those who may yet be saved.

2. To recognize and combat hateful propaganda against American citizens of Jewish descent as a powerful Nazi weapon—powerful because it has been deliberately spread to this continent, where no Nazi invading force has been able to set foot, and secret because victims so incoulated are often unconscious of the source from which it comes.

3. To bring the power of public opinion to bear in cases where responsible officials condone, commit or fail to oppose persecution of Jews, old and young.

Foreign Cooperation Sought

4. To cooperate with like-minded groups in other countries, such as the "National Committee for Rescue From the Nazi Terror," of which the Archbishop of Canterbury is a member, in mobilizing the peoples of the United Nations in behalf of such a program for rescue and in warning Adolf Hitler and his agents in Axis and satellite countries that they will be punished for their crimes against mankind.

In making the announcement on the anniversary of the rise to power of Hitler eleven years ago, Justice Murphy said that here in the United States, "a country founded upon the right of every individual to justice, religious and personal freedom, Nazi propaganda is breeding the germs of hatred against the Jews."

"No bacteriological warfare could be more insidious and more destructive to fundamental goodwill and ideals of religious and racial tolerancee which have built a great America," he stated.

There was no more shocking violation of the human conscience than the Nazi persecution of the Jews, of whom 3,000,000 had been killed and 4,000,000 more faced death, he said.

'Ghost Voice' Interferes With Hitler's Broadcast

By Reuter

LONDON, Jan. 30—The German short wave station that relayed Adolf Hitler's speech was constantly interfered with by a "ghost voice."

It was active throughout the speech, shouting remarks when Hitler paused.
