CONFIDENTIAL

(SECTION VI)

According to Riegner it would not appear that suppliers of French francs would take blocked dollars or blocked Swiss francs since French francs enjoy a comparatively active market. No remittances of Swiss francs previously granted dollars would, he assured us, be made to hostile territory and they would see to it that no one aiding the Axis or associating with it would receive dollars or Swiss francs through them. For these purposes at least 15,000 to 20,000 Swiss francs a month would be necessary. It would be necessary to use people who could be trusted by WJC to carry out these transactions with discretion. It would be impossible to get a detailed accounting of the expenditures made in France.

E. Efforts are being by Riegner and the International Red Cross to get permission from the Germans to send food parcels to Poland and Upper Silesia, and also to G. Riegner requests that $10,000 be sent to him by WJC, New York, so that in case the Germans should grant permission (about which he
