Dear Harry:

I want to thank you for your helpfulness and interest in the early stages of the preparation of my forthcoming book, "Sixty Million Jobs". The publishers tell me that they expect to have it out around the first of September.

Will you please convey my very sincere appreciation also to Luxford, DuBois, Coe, and to Silvermaster, Friedman, Mayer and Kaplan for their wholehearted interest, suggestions, and contributions.

Sincerely yours,

(Sgd) H. A. WALLACE
